Whether you are an individual, an SME or a global corporation, learning styles vary enormously and no one solution fits all. # Our Trainers

Your language trainer is key to your experience of learning a language with Cactus. It is important that he or she understands your industry, your context, your language goals and your learning style.

Many of our trainers have extensive business experience in a wide range of industries. Some also hold PhDs in their specific field, or MBAs. Cactus will always select the trainer that best matches your language needs and goals.

Teaches Spanish

Amalia Trujillo Torralbo

Experience: Varde, TripAdvisor, Standard Chartered, Fidelity Management & Research Company, Coca-Cola, Telefonica, Hotcourses
...and many others.

Top tip: Every student is different and knows what strategies work best for them. I always encourage students to be consistent and committed, as if they can dedicate a few minutes a day, every day, they will be far more successful than if they spend one or two hours on the language, but only sporadically.

Teaches English

Jim Hitch

Experience at AKQA, Chevron Oil, Citi, Credit Suisse, KPMG, Mitsubishi UFJ, Morgan Stanley, Tesco, Visa, Zara Inditex ...and many others.

Top tip: Find a time slot, ideally each day, to focus on fluency, on the message you want to communicate. Forget about the rules and allow yourself to make mistakes when speaking. Progress and improvements happen when you lose the fear of making a mistake.
